Announcing Upcoming TINQ Training

February 26, 2019

The National Finance Center's (NFC) Training and Communications Branch (TCB) is now accepting enrollment for the instructor-led Time Inquiry-Leave Update System (TINQ) training course. The course will take place March 27, 2019, at the USDA Client Services Office (CSO) located in Washington D.C. This 1-day class will begin each day at 8:30 a.m. EST, concluding on March 27, 2019.

This course will equip participants with the appropriate knowledge, skills, and ability to access and perform essential functions within the TINQ application. Participants will also gain insight into how TINQ relates to other NFC Payroll, Personnel, and Inquiry Systems. Interested individuals are encouraged to register.

To register, email your completed registration form including payment information and the ALC and TAS numbers on the bottom of the form and SF182 to the NFC Training Mailbox at nfc.training@nfc.usda.gov.
